

Diagram illustrating the relationship between the triangles and the given dimensions:

The top triangle has a horizontal base of 100 feet.

The bottom triangle has a vertical base of 100 feet.

The triangles are similar, with the top triangle being larger than the bottom one.